4. In-House Counsel / UL System

Escamilla & Poneck will serve as in-house counsel to the UL System working in collaboration with Decuir, Clark & Adams handling general in-house representation for the UL System. Escamilla & Poneck will also coordinate the provision of legal services by other outside legal counsel who litigate and perform general counsel services directly for member institutions. Escamilla & Poneck will also handle coordination of legal compliance for nine universities including coordination of legal trainings, legal policies, Consent Decrees, and other system-wide legal compliance concerns. These services will not be billed to individual universities, but all legal work on these matters will be initiated by the UL system office, possibly after consultation with the university representatives and billing will be processed appropriately. Therefore, any general legal matters that are believed to fall under the purview of in-house legal compliance for the UL System should be routed to Escamilla & Poneck through an appropriate UL System member: Karla Hughes, Robbie Robinson; Lisa Shemwell; Bruce Janet (EEOC).
